

Robofest 2020 World Championship Bios of Sr UMC Judges

Sr. UMC Competition Saturday, August 29, 2020

Rangarao Andra has worked with a lot of automation using many devices. She enjoys spending time with her kids and their school as a technology adviser. Rangarao lives in Hyderabad.

Erendira Cabrera is a robotics competitor from Morelos, Estado de Mexico, Mexico.

Diana Laura Gonzalez Charvarin is an enthusiast of robotics from Pachuca, Hidalgo, Mexico.

Ken Chang is a Cranbrook community volunteer from Bloomfield Hills, Michigan, USA.

Wang Chenen has been a decade-long student of robotics who has participated in the World Robot Olympiad many times. Wang is now a major in Electrical Engineering at National Yunlin and is from Taoyuan, Taiwan.

Roberto Pena Gamero is an Engineer of .Mechatronics from Toluca, Estado de Mexico. He is an experienced Judge of Robofest LATAM & WRO.

Illiana Elena Rvas Gonzalez is a robotics learner & enthusiast from Pachuca, Hidalgo, Mexico.

Syed Husaini is an experienced VEX IQ and VRC competition judge from the Cranbrook community in Bloomfield Hills, Michigan, USA. Syed is a vehicle dynamics engineer working in the automotive industry in the Metro- Detroit area. Working in any capacity in a robotics competition is always "a blast" for him.

Leslie Joppa is a recent graduate in the field of Telecommunications Engineering with experience in STEM, Robotics, IoT, UAVs, 3D printing, Python, Innovation related activities and project management, with interest in Machine Learning & AI. She has over five years' experience in robotics with GRAF and is from Accra, Ghana.

Pi-Chang Jung is a Robofest Taiwan 1st Judge from Taipei, Taiwan.

Chang Liang-Chen is a mechanical engineer holding a college degree in Mechanical Technology. Chang is an experienced BottleSumo judge from Taipei, Taiwan.

Daniel Oliver is a senior at Lawrence Technological University in Southfield, Michigan, USA studying Robotics engineering. He has been a valuable student assistant with Robofest for four years.

Aparna Raghava is a Cranbrook community volunteer from Bloomfield Hills, Michigan, USA.

Liliana Elisa Ramirez Vargas is an Engineering Mechatronics Enthusiast of Robotics. She has a wealth of experience participating in Robofest and educational Robotics & vision systems. Liliana is from Toluca, Estado de Mexico.